

Central Missouri Republican
17 Mar 1887

3/7

—A large lot of garden seed was received here last week from the Agricultural Department by the members of the Central Missouri Horticultural Association.

—J. R. Walker and Col. L. V. Stephens, of Boonville, were in the city last night, registered at Steber & Doyle's. They were in Sedalia to attend the Salvation Army. — Bazoo, March 15.

—A. C. Caughlin, a prominent member of the Knights of Labor, of St. Louis, was announced to speak last night at Thespian Hall on the principles, objects and aims of the Knights of Labor.

—An effort should be made to have the bridge across the river here opened to public travel. It would benefit the merchants of this city and would be a convenience to the people living on the other side.

—The painters and paper hangers have done a fine, artistic lot of work in papering, painting and decorating the interior of the Methodist church. It presents a very attractive appearance now.

—The marriage of Miss Mamie Spahr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Spahr, of this city, to Louis L. Williams, United States Commissioner at Juneau, Alaska, will take place at the Methodist church in this city this morning at ten o'clock.

—The Fast Mail train went through all right from St. Louis to Kansas City last Monday morning, arriving at its destination five minutes ahead of time. The St. Louis papers got to Boonville at 11:15 in the morning, five hours earlier than usual.

—Our popular barber Vic Collins is starting the building boom for this season. Some time since he sold his property on Wink street, bought a lot on South 6th Street and is now erecting a nice little residence thereon. Let the good work go on.

—Your attention is called to the advertisement of B. C. Wells, the popular butcher. He keeps the very best and freshest meat, always has a large and choice stock on hand and every one may be sure of getting just what they want when dealing with him.

—An excellent crayon portrait of Mayor C. C. Bell now adorns the walls of the city hall. It was presented to the council at the meeting on Wednesday night of last week by the popular photographer and artist, Mr. J. O. Macurdy, and is a fine piece of work, a splendid likeness and an ornament to the council chamber.

—The Lutheran Congregation of this city intend building a new church edifice. It will be built on the site of the present edifice, but the plans will not be drawn until the money is raised and the size and style of the structure will depend upon the amount secured. The work of securing subscriptions to a building

Collins