FROM CONCORD.

→ —A great deal of sickness in the county, principally chills.

→ —Bud Stevens and Lucy Cartner were married this week.

→ —Charles Lewis, an industrious negro, died on Friday last.

→ —Mr. Humphreyville and wife are spending the week in Kansas City.

→ —Miss Mattie Edwards has gone to Holden where she will reside this winter.

→ —Mrs. James Rennison, who has been sick for sometime, is improving slowly.

→ —Rudolph Brothers shipped several car loads of cattle and hogs to St. Louis this week.

→ —Our farmers are threshing wheat in this vicinity. They report a good quality but small quantity.

→ —Mr. Robert Edwards, editor of the Slater Rüstler, was on a visit to his mother the first of the week.

→ —The Baptist brethren have papered and painted their church at Mt. Hermon. It presents a very neat appearance now.

→ —Some of the Democrats in this vicinity talk of voting for Levens and Bell but ye local tries to convert all such to straight Democracy and prevail on them to vote the ticket without scratching. A few Republicans are jubilant over the belief that Cooper county is to have a Republican representative. Well, we don't think so.
