

Marshalltown Statesman

13 Nov 1891

5/3

5/5

Our clothing is the best made, best fitting, and sold at the lowest price. Be sure of the place, 16 West Main street. Farrand, Smith & Gifford.

The stores of A. H. Welker and Brown & Dobson at LeGrand were broken into Tuesday night and something over $100 worth of goods taken.

S. C. McFarland, Charley Hull, Geo. Glick, A. F. Balch, C. J. Lander and Pete Densel made a pleasant hunting party at Lost Island this and part of last week.

Myron Wescott and Miss Myrtle Dunham, both of this city, were married Tuesday evening by Justice Stotts, at the home of the bride on South Fifth street.

Tom Harris, of Taylor township, must have raised an enormous amount of potatoes this year, judging from the loads he has been hauling in for the past month.

Mr. Benjamin has taken the agency of the celebrated Estey pianos and organs, and with the self-tuning "Guild" pianos, he can surely furnish his patrons the best.

Rev. John Mac Allister will preach morning and evening at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. He is a very attractive speaker and has already made a fine impression.

Deitrich (the cigar man) has moved his stock of cigars, tobacco, etc., across the street from his former location, into No. 113 East Main street, second door west of American express office.

Ben Scheid, a young man of the city, at the soldier's home Tuesday, after being out hunting, accidentally discharged his gun in getting down from a stump, and tore off part of his hand.

Licensed to Marry.

Wm. H. Corfe, a druggist of Laurens age 22, and Ethel A. Holmes, of Marshalltown, age 22.

E. D. Downey, a painter of Moines, age 24, and Aggie Widdy, Marshalltown, age 22.

Hiram Miller, of Dallas county, age 55, and Angelina Siples, age 49. Second marriage for both.

S. Milton Mann, a printer of Idaho Falls, Idaho, age 23, and Minnie Summers, of Marshalltown, age 19.

Albert N. Norland, of Marshalltown age 33, and Louisa Ludwigson, of LeGrand, age 26. Second marriage for groom.

Conwell Peterson, age 23, and Frances Dziubeck, age 16, both of Quarry.

Ole Johan Rasmusson, a sailor of Chicago, age 30, and Hannah Bertin Paulson, of Dunbar, age 22.

W. M. Talbott, a mason, age 40, and Rachel Moore, age 34, both of Lamolle. Second marriage for both.

Myron Wescott, of Timber Creel township, age 26, and Myrtle Dunham of Marshalltown, age 18.

Mrs. J. W. Abbott, who has been visiting her parents in Liberty township, left last Saturday for Crete, Neb., to join her husband, who is selling buggies for the Rhoades & Carmean Co. in that state.

A. R. Tipton, one of the old residents of this city, is very dangerously ill at his son W. S. Tipton's home, two miles