

—Six boys from Kansas City were received Monday at the State Reform School.

—Circuit Clerk Hollman returned last Friday from a two weeks' trip through Southwest Missouri.

—G. Pulley, New Palestine, and Geo. Cockrell, Bunceton, are new subscribers to THE ADVERTISER.

—S. W. Dills, superintendent of the county poor farm, was in Boonville Tuesday, on business in the county court.

—Ewing Coe, a son of Mrs. Eva Coe, of Bunceton, died Tuesday, May 5, 1896, aged about nine years. He had been an invalid all his life. The funeral took place Wednesday, at 2 p. m., at Bunceton.

—Joseph Remison, aged eighty-four years, died of pneumonia at his home, seven miles south-east of Boonville, Thursday, April 30, 1896. The remains were buried Saturday, in the cemetery at Mt. Hermon.

—Rogers & Son's fine young mare, Bellmarsh, dam of Kathleen, dropped a colt by Eros a few days since. Bellmarsh is by Hambrino, 2:21, sire of Bellmarsh, 2:11. The sire of Eros was the great stallion, Electioneer.

—A great deal of wool has been received this week by Boonville shippers, from the wool-raisers of this county. Brokmeyer alone has bought over 5,000 pounds during the last few days, at ten and eleven cents a pound.

—Miss Etta Orr, a daughter of Capt. Orr, of near Pilot Grove, died of consumption, at the home of her parents, Tuesday, May 5, 1896, aged about twenty-two years. The funeral took place yesterday, from the Christian church in Pilot Grove.

—From the Sedalia Star-Sentinel: "Engineer Gus Hessler, who was injured in the Boonville wreck, several months ago, is improving very slowly, he having trouble with his back; also a wound on his head is a little backward in healing."

—Will H. Rucker, of Columbia, one of the most popular and successful traveling men on the road, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Boonville. He tells us that, one day last week, he caught with his reel and rod seven handsome black bass, three of them weighing five pounds. These fish were not caught in the Nangua river, either, but in the Bonne Femme, in Boone county.

—Mrs. Samuel Hickam died Saturday, May 2, 1896, at her home, about three miles east of Overton, aged about thirty years. She had been ill but a few days. The remains were buried Sunday morning, May 3d, at 10 o'clock, in the family burial ground on the old Hickam homestead, near Overton. Deceased leaves a husband and one child, and many relatives and friends, to mourn her death.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

From the Otterville Mail.

—J. Will Smith returned yesterday from a trip to Texas.

—Miss Alice Logan left Tuesday for Oklahoma, to visit her father.

—Miss Jennie Harlan came down from Sedalia yesterday to visit relatives.

—Mrs. Ida Potter and daughters returned yesterday from a week's visit in Sedalia.

—John Phillips, the Soleville mule buyer, was in the counties south of here last week and bought several mules.