

3 Feb 1899

5/2

J. W. Brown, the east-end shoemaker, Thursday removed his business from 112 East Third street to 1105 East Third.

Willie Bowman, the bicycle rider, fell and received painful injuries while skating on the ice at Fischer's lake Wednesday.

C. W. Wasson, proprietor of a restaurant on East Main street, had the end of his finger torn off by a door Wednesday.

Al Wilson, a teamster employed by the Cohen Coal company, had a finger badly frozen Wednesday. Amputation may be necessary.

W. H. Powell, jr., who was granted an electric light franchise by the city council recently, yesterday filed the required $2,500 bond.

George Hotzen and Miss Annie Muellet will be married at the German Lutheran church at Lake Creek, Benton county, next Sunday.

Edward Allen, lineman, employed by the Sedalia Electric railway, has succeeded Jack Schnakenberg as motor man on the East Sedalia division.

The Clio Club met with Mrs. Sallie Potter Sneed yesterday morning, the session being devoted to the review of "Kenilworth." A discussion followed.

Mrs. William Hill, who has been successfully conducting a boarding house on East Third street, will take charge of the Union house, Fourth and Engineer, on February 15.

Mrs. Anna Palmer, national evangelist, will arrive here on February 9, and will conduct a revival under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., at the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Sallie Todd, of Sedalia, arrested a few days ago by Deputy United States Marshal McKenna, on the charge of selling beer without a license, was held to the grand jury in the sum of $200 by Commissioner Jeffries at Clinton.