WEDDING AND INFAIR.

The marriage of Miss Maud Woolery to Mr. George I. Helms took place at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening at the residence of the bride's parents in the Mt. Nebo neighborhood, in the southern part of the county, the Rev. Bramfield officiating. It was a pretty wedding and there was a large attendance of relatives, friends and neighbors. After the interesting ceremony a sumptuous wedding supper, such as one sees only in the country, was enjoyed. Yesterday an infair took place at the home of the groom's parents, near New Lebanon, at which there was another large gathering.

The fair bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Woolery, who are among the most highly respected residents of the county, while the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Helms, and is a young man of much popularity and solid worth.
