

Pilot Grove Enterprise

25 Jul 1901

8/11

Miss Viola Merritt left Saturday to visit friends near Clifton City and Beaman. She will be absent about two weeks.

Mrs. Chas. McElvany and children, of Dennison, Texas, arrived Tuesday ~~with~~ her parents, Judge J. J. Davis and wife.

Mrs. Charlie Armstrong and daughter, Miss Vanita, of Lewis Station, ~~came Monday for a visit with relatives and friends.~~

J. E. Cartner arrived Tuesday from an extended trip to Texas, southwest Missouri and other points. He reports a hot time.

Mrs. A. F. Wolfson and son Fred and Misses Beulah Goode and Mary Cox and Guy Goode, left Monday for a week's stay at Chouteau.

Mrs. Berghofer and family, Marshall Culley and family, and Misses Madge Goode and Artie Scott were visitors at Chouteau Friday.

CHEAPEST AND BEST:

You can save ten per cent on all laundry work done by us—J. W. Kistler, Agt., Monarch Laundry.

H. R. McCutchen, of Blairstown, Mo., spent a couple of days here the latter part of last week, the guest of his mother, Mrs. J. M. McCutchen.

Mrs. J. W. Kistler and children left for Beaman Sunday, where they will spend a week, the guest of Mrs. Kistler's mother, Mrs. S. A. Stewart.

Mrs. M. Rust, of this place, and Mrs. C. J. Harris and son Jack, of St. Louis, and Mrs. W. L. Webb, of Evanston, Ill., went to spend two weeks at Chouteau Springs Monday.

Born, to A. C. Harriman and wife, on last Thursday, a fine boy. This is Mr. and Mrs. Harriman's first, and Bert has not yet reached the period where he can speak of his only son without blushing.

Miss Gertrude Coleman, daughter of Prof. G. L. Coleman, who has been visiting the family of her uncle, S. G. Coleman, of this place, returned to her home at Sedalia Sunday.

Ed Pully returned Monday evening from Ardmore, Mo., after working at that place the past two years. He will probably make his home at this place.

Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns and bruises which heal rapidly when BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is applied. Price, 25 and 50 cents at Cruse & Day.

Don't dig a well unless it's on a stream. I will locate the stream and give the depth and strength; charges reasonable. J. W. STEGNER, Corroll, Cooper County, Mo.

Two large and conspicuous signs were erected just across the street from the Chouteau Springs entrance Tuesday. One speaks for A. F. Wolfson and the other does loud long-distance talking for the C. J. Harris Lumber Company, both of this place.

A gentleman from the north country informs us that Joe Judd has gone fox hunting again. There is nothing remarkable about the fox hunt, but Joe's friends are anxious to learn what good it does him to go fox hunting when he is so deaf that he can't hear the dog's bark.

Miss Vivian Ellis, of Pilot Grove, was the guest this week of Mrs. W. F. Johnson. . . . Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Chilton, of Pilot Grove, were in Boonville Sunday for a short visit with Mrs. Chilton's mother, Mrs. L. Y. Lyonberger.—Boonville Advertiser.

Mrs. Margaret Dorflinger and daughter, Miss Ida, formerly of this place, returned to their home in Solomon, Kan., after a two weeks' visit with John Hartman and family and other relatives. They had been visiting since May 15, in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Washington with relatives and reported a good time.