

Central Missouri Republican

26 Oct 1905

3/2 Booch Mill Column

C. M. Lacy was in Blackwater last Thursday on milling business.

John Warmbrodt, of Boonville, was in this city Tuesday on business.

John Schnuck, of near Boonville, was here Monday transacting business.

Edward J. Smith, of Overton, was here Wednesday shaking hands with his many friends.

Thomas J. Cartner, wife and daughter, Margaret, of Clarks Fork, were in this vicinity Tuesday.

Henry S. Hobericht, of Elliott, was here Friday transacting business with the Big Lick Roller Mills.

Mrs. O. W. Cochran and family, of Boonville, were guests of friends and relatives here Saturday and Sunday.

R. C. Pogue returned from Boonville Saturday where he had been summoned on the petit jury. He served a week.

Wirt I. Case and James O. Vaughan, of Lupus, were here Tuesday transacting business with Turner and Lacy.

Eugene Hess and Mr. Hoag, of Boonville, were here Saturday in the interest of farm loans. They met with quite a success in this community.

Miss Emma Mischler and Miss Dolly Woods, of near California, were guests of the families of John Mischler and Fritz Gerly several days last week.

Mrs. Julia Case Schafer and her father, O. F. Case, left Sunday morning for Waverley, Iowa, the home of Mrs. Schafer, where her