MOTHER SHIPTON'S PROPHECIES.

The following "Prophecies of Mother Shipton" is printed by request. Mother Shipton lived in England more than five hundred years ago and uttered several so-called prophecies. The following lines were first published in 1485, before the discovery of America and before any of the discoveries and inventions mentioned there in. All the events predicted have happened except the prophecy in the last two lines.

Carriages without horses shall go,
And accidents fill the world with woe.
Around the world thought shall fly
In the twinkling of an eye.

Waters shall yet more wonders do,
Now strange, yet shall be true.

The world upside down shall be,
And gold be found at root of tree.

Through hills man shall ride,
And no horse nor ass be at his side.

Under water man shall walk,
Shall ride, shall sleep, shall talk.

In the air men shall be seen,
In white, in black, in green.

Iron in the water shall float,
As easy as a wooden boat.

Fire and water shall wonders do,
England shall at last admit a Jew.

And this world to an end shall come
In eighteen hundred and eighty-one.
