

Weekly Democrat
News
Marshall, Mo

16 Apr 1914

WADE HAMPTON LAND.

Wade H. Land passed away at his home south of Marshall, Friday, April 10. His illness began nearly two weeks ago, he was taken with pleurisy then pneumonia, and for several days before he died he suffered with congestion of the brain.

Deceased was the youngest son of Sterling J. and Margeret Land. Was born December 1, 1877, in Randolph county, Mo., came to Marshall when a small boy and resided there until almost grown, when he came to live on a farm. Was married to Mirande Rennison, June 29, 1897, to this union were born three children, two of them living, they with their mother are left to mourn the loss of a devoted and loving father and husband.

In addition to the wife and children mentioned, his father, S. J. Land of Higbee, Mo.; O. P. Land, Marshall, Mo.; George Land, Kansas City, Mo.; James R. Land and Lee Land, Napton, Mo.; also three sisters, Mrs. S. J. Rice, Mrs. Joe Brinkman, both of St. Louis, and Mrs. Wm. Johnston of Texas, survive the deceased.

This summons, not only takes from our midst a kind husband and father, but a good neighbor, one whose life was full of kindly deed and interest in humanity, ever generous and thoughtful of others.

The high esteem in which he was held, was made manifest at his grave, by the large congregation of friends and neighbors who gathered there to pay their last sad respects to the one gone on before.

The funeral and burial took place at Miller's Chapel, Sunday afternoon, funeral was conducted by Bro. Reed, pastor of that church and Undertaker Nelson had charge of the burial arrangements.

The pall bearers were Jesso Scott, Roy Hinton, Tom Pace, Roy Brayman, Enoch Hinton and John Laytham, the last a boyhood playmate of Mr. Lands.

Deep sympathy is extended to the bereaved family in this their hour of great sorrow.

will remain here a month before she returns to Denver.

Rev. Blaney of Marshall was over Sunday to preach at the Presbyterian church. Rev. Jones of the Christian church delivered the Easter sermon.

No young lady is fond of cooking until patience ceases to be a virtue. So that is the reason that several of Johnny Vaughn's best girls have decided to say, "No" when the final ques-