

Boonville Weekly Advertiser

3 Jan 1919

4/3

James Moore, a farmer residing near Chouteau Springs, this county, committed suicide Tuesday morning by placing the muzzle of a shotgun in his mouth and discharging the contents. Death resulted instantaneous. No cause was assigned for the deed. He was about 60 years of age.

Moore

Harry A. Creagan who was formerly with the Wm. H. Trigg & Co. of this city but now Asst. Treasurer of the Mercantile Trust Company of St. Louis has returned to his home in St. Louis after several months service in the Paymasters office at the Great Lakes Naval Training Station.

Mrs. M. V. Gordon of Pittsburg, Penn., for many years a resident of Boonville, arrived last week from San Antonio, Texas, where she has been for some months in order to be near her grandson Arthur Merman who is an aviation instructor at Kelly Field. Mrs. Gordon is the guest of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Spahr.

The far reaching reputation of the Chillicothe Business College is further shown in the call last week from a business school in Calgary, Alberta, Canada for a teacher and which was filled with Miss Stella Roberts of Red Star, Ark., the third student to recently be placed with Canadian schools.

Mrs. P. L. Hurt of Howard county, for many years a resident of Boonville, is receiving the congratulations of her many friends over the arrival of a little granddaughter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ambrose, Thursday, December 18, 1918. The little one has been given the name Winifred Kinney Ambrose.

Hurt