When Alva W. Hurt, an old Cooper county boy, now Attorney for the United Railway Co., St. Louis, Mo., arrived in Boonville, last Thursday, on his annual vacation trip, he surprised his many friends by bringing with him a bride, who until her marriage to Mr. Hurt last Wednesday, Sept. 17 at Jefferson City, Mo., was Miss Nellie Armstrong, youngest daughter of Judge A. Mr. and Mrs. Hurt will spend ten days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Hurt, near Rankin's Mill, and other relatives here, before returning to St. Louis, their future home.
