

Democrat - Leader
Fayette, MO

22 Mar 1923

1/5

Negro Dies, Aged 115

Garland Truett, colored, without doubt the oldest man, white or black, in this section of the state, died Monday at his home in Franklin Junction. It is claimed that there are records in existence which prove him to be at least 115 years old. He was buried at Franklin Tuesday.

Truett
(black) sent to Marleta
Childs