

10/5

SPEED

Mrs. George Chamberlin and little son, George Hall, spent last Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. Verdon Worth at Buncheon.

Uncus Lynn, of Boonville, spent last Thursday night with Mr. and Mrs. Grover Jeffress.

Rolla Sly motored to California Friday.

E. B. Sly was called to St. Louis last Friday by the fatal illness of his daughter, Mrs. Harold Reader.

O. C. Berry has moved from his home here to a residence on South Main St., Boonville.

Bud Williams has had a new radio installed in his home here.

Mrs. Wayne Berry is suffering with tonsillitis this week.

The Washington Farm Club presented the play, "The Path Across the Hill," at the Woodman Hall here last Wednesday night. A good crowd was present and the play was greatly enjoyed by all.

Misses Helen and Geneva Sly, who attend school at Central College, Fayette, were called home last Friday by the illness and death of their sister, Mrs. Harold Reader, of St. Louis.

Mrs. John Oswald, of Boonville, came Sunday to be with her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Berry, who is quite sick.

The Farm Club will hold a meeting Friday night in the Gerhardt Hall here. There will be a program and debate. Everyone invited.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Miller, of Portland, Colorado, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Holloway and Hazel Whitaker, of Clarksburg, spent Wednesday night with Louis Miller and family.

George Schlotzhauer and Jas. Painter, left here Saturday evening for St. Louis, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Harold Reader, on Sunday, returning home Monday morning.

Mrs. D. P. Stogner, Misses Helen and Geneva Sly, and Rolla Sly went to St. Louis Saturday to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. Harold Reader, on Sunday. They were accompanied by their uncle, Stanley Schlotzhauer, of Pilot Grove.

Rev. Paul Niedermeyer, of Billingsville, has kindly consented to again preach each second and fourth Sunday nights at the Union church here throughout the coming year. We feel that we are indeed fortunate in securing such an able pastor as Rev. Niedermeyer.

Ed Warcham, of Buncheon, has purchased walnut logs from a number of farmers in this community.

George Hein has purchased a new radio from Leonard Childs. It will be installed in the near future.

OTTERVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McLaughlin, of Clifton City, entertained a party of friends Wednesday eve with a dinner bridge of four tables. The house was beautifully decorated with potted begonias. A four-course dinner was served, the guests being: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Golliday, Mr. and Mrs. Vest Street, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gunn, Mr. and Mrs. Less Layne, Dr. and Mrs. C. D. Onbark, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Miller and Miss Landman. Mrs. McLaughlin was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Miller. High score was won by Mrs. J. E. Golliday, the prize being a deck of cards.

Clarence Tallaferra, of Kansas City, son of Mrs. Dora Tallaferra, of Otterville, was buried in the I. O. O. F. cemetery Friday. He leaves his wife, mother and four brothers.

The Rebecca Lodge held its installation of officers for the coming year Thursday night as follows: Mrs. Bessie Smith, N. O.; Mrs. Kate Burnett, V. G.; Mrs. May Shultz, Secy.; and Mrs. Ida Haman, Treasurer. The installing officer was Mrs. Walker, of Sedalia. After the installation refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Mrs. Len Spillers was visiting in California the past week with her daughter, Agnes Spillers.

Mrs. Sallie Smith came home Saturday after a long visit with her sisters, Mrs. J. R. Pifer, of Joplin, and Mrs. H. H. Hirst, of Wichita, Kansas. She also visited her daughter, Mrs. L. W. Cury, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mrs. Lizzie Burford left Sunday for Kansas City, where she will nurse a case for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Everett have as a guest Mrs. S. H. Childers, of St. Louis.

Mrs. Lincoln Schlib and children spent the week-end with Mrs. Schlib's sister, Mrs. W. O. Manus, and brother, Ira Decker.

The Farmers Shipping Association shipped two car loads of stock to St. Louis Monday, they also shipped one load of wheat to Hermann.

Miss Shoemaker, nurse at the Osborne Hospital, left Friday for her home in Kansas City.

Miss Edith Bryan spent the week-end with Miss Louisa Palmer in Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Cooper, of Sedalia, spent Sunday with Mrs. Tom Phillips.

Misses Helen Bush and Glorola Gorman, students at Warrensburg, spent the week-end with their respective parents in Otterville.

Luchett Smith of Panico, Mexico, came home for an extended visit with his mother, Mrs. Bessie Smith. Mr. Smith had been visiting in Columbia.

George Potter made a business trip to Boonville Tuesday.