The Week in Boonville

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henger motored to Kansas City and Excelsior Springs this week for a stay of several weeks.

Raymond Twyman, formerly of Boonville, now of Kansas City, came to Boonville Wednesday for a brief visit with friends.

Mrs. H. W. Harris of Sedalia, and Mrs. B. Q. Bonham, of Fayette, were guests in the B. L. Moore home this week and attended the D. A. R. Conference.

William Hurt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hurt, of Los Angeles, Calif., arrived in Boonville Wednesday for a visit with relatives and friends. William formerly lived here, as did his parents.

Mrs. T. M. Macdonnell, of Bunce-ton, who had been visiting her sons, Meade and John, at Windsor, came to Boonville Tuesday to attend the State D. A. R. Conference. While here, she was a guest in the Edgar C. Nelson home.
