

Colin ✓
Gustin

Boonville Advertiser

22 Apr 1927

1/1

Miss Colin is Bride of Harold Gustin

Boonville Young People Wedded
Sunday Afternoon.—They Will Make Their Home Here

Colin
Gustin

Miss Elizabeth Colin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Colin, and Harold Gustin, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gustin, were married at the home of the bride's parents, on Main Street, Sunday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock. Rev. H. J. Rand, pastor of the Nelson Memorial Methodist Church officiated, the double ring ceremony being used. Only the members of the families and a few close friends were present.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon over satin and carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds. Miss Bernadine Gustin acted as bridesmaid and Graydon Colin was groomsman. Miss Gustin wore a peach georgette gown and carried a corsage of sweet peas. Miss Hazel Colin, as ring bearer, wore a dress of pink taffeta.

Before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Lela Varney sang, "I Love You Truly," and Miss Bertha Mae Shook, of Marshall, played the wedding march. The altar was formed of large ferns, lilacs, jonquils, and white narcissus.

Mr. and Mrs. Gustin left immediately after the ceremony for a short trip to Kansas City. They will be at home to their many friends, after May 1, at 422½ Main Street.

The bride is a graduate of the Boonville High School and of a Kansas City beauty culture college. She is a young lady of many fine attributes of character. Mr. Gustin is associated with his father in the creamery business in Boonville and is one of Boonville's promising young business men.

1/3

Jamestown Woman Dies at Age of 96

Mrs. Thomas Elliott Was a Native of Saline County, Being Born near Miami

Elliott

Mrs. Thomas Elliott died Tuesday morning at one o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Belle Johnson, 4 miles south of Jamestown. She was 96 years, 6 months and 10 days old at the time of her death. She had been in failing health for some time.

Speel

Mrs. Elliott's maiden name was Miss Lou Speel, and she was born near Miami, in Saline county. When a young girl her parents moved to near Jamestown, where she spent the remainder of her life. As a young woman she became the wife of Thomas Elliott, and two sons and one daughter were born to this union. One son died in 1881 while attending college at Clarksburg, and T. B. Elliott, of near Clarksburg, survives, along with the daughter, Belle, widow of Willard Johnson, with whom she made her home.

At an early age Mrs. Elliott united with the Union Baptist church, from which the funeral was conducted Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, the pastor, Rev. Crain, officiating.