Miss Stock Weds Claude H. Drennen

Boonville Young Lady and St.
Louis Young Man Married
Here Sunday Afternoon

The marriage of Miss Lydia Stock, of Boonville, to Claude H. Drennen, of St. Louis, was performed Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Lutheran Church. The pastor, Rev. Geo. Klattenhoff, performed the ceremony, using the ring service.

The church was beautifully decorated in ferns, cut flowers and palms. As the bridal party entered the church, Mrs. W. L. Koenig played the Wedding March from Lohengrin. The bride was very attractive in her gown of white flat crepe, with wreath and veil. She carried pink roses, baby breath and ferns.

Miss Clara Stock, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of pink flat crepe with a large picture hat to match, and carried pink roses. Albert Drennen, brother of the groom, was best man.

Miss Mary Drennen, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She wore pink flat crepe with a large picture hat to match, and carried pink roses. Lawrence Stock, cousin of the bride was groomsman.

As the bridal party came from the altar, Mrs. Keonig played a selection from Mendelssohn's Midsummer Night's Dream.

Following the wedding, a dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, to the bridal party, members of the immediate families and a few close friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Stock. She is a graduate of Dunkle's Business School, and has been employed at the Boonville office of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. She is an accomplished and popular young lady. Mr. Drennen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Drennen, near Boonville. He is also a graduate of Dunkle's Business School, and holds a good position in St. Louis.

After June 11 the young couple will be at home at 1370 Granville Place, St. Louis.

DEATH OF A. G. T. THOMAS, NEW LEBANON, WAS SUDDEN

In the death of A. G. T. Thomas, who died very suddenly May 30, the New Lebanon community lost one of its best known citizens. Mr. Thomas, best known as Gabe Thomas, had just started to ride horseback to a field on his farm, when he was suddenly stricken and died within a few minutes. He was 78 years, 7 months and 13 days old. Funeral services were conducted at the Thomas home June 1 by Rev. Geo. Monroe, of Harrisonville, with interment in the New Lebanon cemetery.

Mr. Thomas lived on what was a part of the old Thomas homestead where he was born on October 11, 1848. On December 7, 1871 he was married to Eliza J. Steele and to the union were born seven children, four of them preceding the father in death. He is survived by the wife and mother and three children, namely, Miss Ida, at home and Ira and V. L., both of the New Lebanon community.

Mr. Thomas was a successful farmer and a substantial citizen who was highly respected by everyone who knew him.
