

OTTERVILLE

(Miss Jennie Lee Starke)

Clovis Marshall and John Summerhauser, of Kansas City, spent the week-end in the home of Mr. Marshall's aunt, Mrs. A. N. Howlett.

Mrs. Pete Zumsteg returned Sunday from a few days' visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rothgeb, at Sedalia.

Misses Margaret and Mildred Tucker, of Columbia, were guests Saturday and Sunday of Miss Gladys Garland.

Claud Hupp, of Louisville, Ky., made a short visit with relatives and friends in Otterville the last of the week. He was enroute home from a two weeks' vacation spent with his mother, Mrs. Lena Hupp and aunts, Mrs. Nelle Neale and Mrs. Joe Spencer at Raton, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eubank, of Kansas City, and Ed Favorite, of Warrensburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Eubank's and Mr. Favorite's mother, Mrs. Lydia Favorite, and sister, Mrs. T. O. Spillers.

Mrs. Roy Reich and small daughters, Jane and Donna Belle, of Nelson, came Sunday for several days' visit with Mrs. T. R. Cramner and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Cline, of Sedalia, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. Cline's mother, Mrs. Ophelia Cline.

Miss Glennola Gorman has recently been employed to teach in the public schools at Maryville, Kans., for the coming school year.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Todd, of Fort Smith, Ark., were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Everett.

Mrs. C. A. Evans returned Friday from Fayetteville, after spending the past week with her mother, Mrs. Henry Runswick.

James Stephens, of Chamolia, was a visitor Sunday and Monday in the home of his brother, Lewis Stephens.

Mrs. Elma Ferguson, of Columbia, was a business visitor in Otterville over the week-end.

Mrs. S. L. Smith visited from Wednesday until Saturday with her daughter, Mrs. Minnie Stubbsfeld, at Holden.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moon and Mr. and Mrs. N. McDonald, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Glenn Abernill and small son, Charles Edwin, of Los Angeles, Calif., were guests Sunday of Mrs. Dora Tallafarro.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Williams, of Seattle, Wash., are the parents of a daughter born August 21. The little one has been named Barbara Lou. Mrs. Williams will be remembered as Miss Lou Ella Eubank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eubank, of Otterville.

Mrs. Ophelia Cline and daughter, Miss Lena Y. Cline, and Mrs. T. R. Cramner visited friends in Nelson Friday.

H. D. Case and daughters, Misses Alma and Amy Case, returned Sunday from a few days' motor trip, visiting points of interest in South Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Norman and son, Nelson, spent Sunday with relatives at California.

Friends of Hubert Allen have received announcements of his marriage to Miss Elizabeth Peck, at Elgin, Ill., August 18. They will make their home in Chicago. Mr. Allen is the son of Mrs. Jessie Allen, of Otterville, and is a graduate of the Otterville high school.

Rev. and Mrs. L. N. Pollock were guests Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gibson, at Marshall.

Harry Wyan, of Richards, spent Sunday with his cousin, Mrs. A. N. Howlett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tleman, of California, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Spillers, Mr. and Mrs. Tleman, and Mr. and Mrs. Spillers attended the Missouri State Fair Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Everett and Mr. and Mrs. H. Roger Starke attended the funeral of Mrs. Sandie Hockaday, at Slater, Sunday.

Dr. Robt. Howlett and son, R. G. Howlett, and Mrs. Howlett and three children, Robert, Junior, and Georgia, of Richland, came Sunday for several days' visit with A. N. Howlett. Dr. R. E. Howlett, who has been visiting in the home of his son at Richland, accompanied them to Otterville.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith returned Tuesday from a several weeks' tour through Colorado, Montana, Wyoming, and other points of interest in the West.

Miss Gladys Garland had as her house guest from Sunday until Tuesday, Miss Helen Dameron, of Silex.

A. N. Howlett and brother, Dr. Robt. Howlett, and Mrs. Howlett, and three children, of Richland, motored to Lexington Monday and spent the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gunn spent the week-end with Mr. Gunn's brother at Barnett.

The members of the Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed a fish fry Thursday at the farm of Walter Wear, south of town. There was a good attendance, and all present reported a very good time.

Miss Ethelyn Morris and brother, Paul Morris, of Kansas City, are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Anna Ross, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Groves, Jr., and small son, Jack, left Monday for Union Star, after spending their vacation with relatives. Mr. Groves is superintendent of the schools at Union Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Burford and Miss Norma May Busch were visitors Sunday in Jefferson City.

Miss Janette Bewley, of Kansas City, came Sunday for a few days' visit in the home of Mrs. C. D. Osborne.

Russell Palmer, of near Bunceton, and Brit Bryan and family, of Nelson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bryan.

Mrs. W. P. Spalts and Mrs. F. J. Spalts, of near Sedalia, spent Wednesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Risher.

The funeral of Mrs. Sandie Hockaday, a former Cooper county resident who died at her home in Slater, Thursday, was held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at that place. Mrs. Hockaday is survived by two daughters, Miss Sue Hockaday and Mrs. Frank Spencer; two sons, Irvin and Weller Hockaday; two grandchildren, Miss Sue Spencer and Joe Spencer, all of Slater; and also one sister, Mrs. S. P. Huff, of Warrensburg.

L. S. DeHaven was ill the first of the week.

Mrs. W. S. Parsons, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parsons and small daughter, Mary Elizabeth, went to Barnett Sunday and attended the marriage of Cecil Parsons, of Versailles, and Miss Ruth Elliott, of Barnett.

Duane Shadwick and family; Mrs. Mina Minter and grandson, Duane Minter, of Rockport were guests Monday night of Mrs. Mary Monroe and son, Emmett Monroe.

Rev. John F. Flippo, of Marshall, will conduct preaching services at the Presbyterian church Sunday. This will be the last Sunday Rev. Flippo will preach in Otterville, as he plans to enter the Seminary at Philadelphia in the near future.

Mrs. A. E. Palmer and small son, Charles Eugene, spent from Thursday until Sunday with relatives in Jefferson City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Willie, and Walter and Harry Hixon, of Ferguson, were dinner guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Diefendorf. Mrs. Willie was until recently Miss May Hixon, a former resident of near Otterville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Coffman, of Windsor, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harmon, of Syracuse, were fishing at the Lamine river, north of Otterville several days last week.

Case

Smith

Parsons

(OVER)