

OTTERVILLE

(Miss Jennie Lee Starke)

Mr. and Mrs. Everett, Bishop, of Bunker, are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. Bishop's mother, Mrs. Bettie Bishop, and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holman entertained with a family dinner, Sunday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Bishop and Nellie Glenn; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Page and family; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holman; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Monks and daughter, Genevieve; and Miss Clara and Miss Mary Holman, of Sedalia.

Mrs. Nona Lucas, of Kansas City, Chas. Hirst, of Kansas City, Kans., came Saturday for a visit with their mother, Mrs. Gusta Mason, and their sisters, Mrs. O. L. Homan and Mrs. Edgar Roesler.

Senator and Mrs. J. H. Gunn visited in the home of his brother, H. D. Gunn, of Barnett, Sunday.

Andrew Kameric, of near Syracuse, was a business visitor in Otterville Saturday.

A pie supper was given at Rockland School Thursday evening, and $15 was realized. Miss Boula Dwyer, of near Pilot Grove, is teacher. A number of high school pupils of Pilot Grove attended. Col. C. C. Jones, of Pilot Grove, was auctioneer.

W. S. Parsons was a business visitor in Versailles Friday.

Mrs. Margaret Brownfield visited the past week with relatives near Beaman.

Frank Shults has finished drilling a well on the W. B. Layne farm, in the Soleville neighborhood.

Durward Goode spent several days last week with his uncle, Claude Cordry, and Mrs. Cordry, of Carthage.

Announcement has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burch, of St. Louis, of the birth of a daughter, November 16. The name Patricia Merle has been given her. Mrs. Burch was before her marriage, Miss Addie Hotsenpillar, of Otterville.

Bus Henderson, of Otterville, and Miss Lanta Hockaday, of Syracuse, were married at Sedalia by Judge Leslie, the past Wednesday. They will make their home for the present with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Henderson, of Otterville.

In the county tournament in Boonville Saturday, the Otterville girls' and boys' basketball teams each won second silver loving cups. Those from Otterville accompanying the teams were Supt. and Mrs. J. D. Dull and children, Joe Delbert and Dorothy Jean; Miss Gladys Garland; Miss Manona Cox; Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Fogle and daughter, Miss Harriett; Mrs. T. R. Cramner; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burford; Miss Lady Jud Golladay; D. B. Mayfield; O. L. Gochenour; J. O. Gochenour;

Ruby Bishop; Arthur Brodersen and Victor Young. Those playing on the girls' team were Selbel Mason, Earline and Bernice Roesler, Leota Neale, Jessie May Wear, Mabel Bane Case, with Earnestine Halley and Helen Dunham as substitutes. The members playing on the boys' team were Paul Ross, George Burnett, James Earle, Ralph Oswald, Earl Neale, with Thomas Nichols as substitute.

Dr. C. S. Roberts, of the state institution at Marshall, visited in the home of his cousin, Col. W. D. Ross, Thursday.

W. H. Lyon, of the Marshall high school, spent Sunday with Mrs. Lyon and small son, Billie, who are spending several weeks with Mrs. Lyon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Eubank.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hansberger and G. W. Harlan attended the Royal Stock Show at Kansas City, the past week.

Supt. and Mrs. J. D. Dull and children, Joe Delbert and Dorothy Jean, are spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. Dull's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Dull, at La Plata.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Homan entertained the following relatives Sunday: Mrs. Gusta Mason and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Roesler and family, of Otterville; and Mrs. Charles Hirst and Mrs. Nona Lucas, of Kansas City, Kans.

Mrs. Ophelia Cline went to Kansas City Wednesday to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Elbert, and Mr. Elbert.

Miss Manona Cox, teacher of the Otterville High School, is spending her Thanksgiving vacation with relatives in Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Evans spent a few days in Kansas City the first of the week.

There were fourteen high school girls initiated on Friday, as a Girl Scout troop, and were later given instruction on bandaging by Mrs. L. L. Rice.

A Thanksgiving program was given in the auditorium of the Otterville public school Wednesday morning, in which the different classes were represented.

Mrs. T. M. Wittman, who has been critically ill at the home of her son, W. J. Wittman, shows little improvement. She was taken to St. Mary's Hospital at Sedalia Sunday, for treatment and will probably undergo a surgical operation.

Mrs. Maude Zollinger, of the Flower Dry Goods Co., at Sedalia, spent Sunday at her home in Otterville. She is spending her Thanksgiving vacation with Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, at Columbia.

← Case Wear

At the regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star, the past Thursday evening, a social hour was spent after the business session. Delicious refreshments were served by the social committee, Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Fogle and Mrs. Mary Ames.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Norman and son, Nelson, spent Sunday with relatives at California.

Col. W. D. Ross, who is confined to his home on account of a fractured bone in his leg, just above the ankle, is getting along as well as could be expected.

Miss Martha Holman, teacher of Stony Point School, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holman.

Mrs. Virgil Quint entertained her class of primary pupils of the Baptist Sunday school Friday afternoon, at Cramner's cafe, honoring the fourth birthday of her daughter, Bettie. Members of the class are Nellie Glenn, Clifford Ashcraft, J. D. Hotsenpillar, Fannie Cole, Jr., Oscar Bishop, Charles Snyder, Kenneth and Jewel Schlib. Other invited guests were Miss Harriet Fogle, Miss Norma Mae Bush, Dick Harlan, James Earle, Etta Catherine Oswald and Esther J. Straten. Refreshments were served at the cafe.

Miss Verda Lopp, of the Otterville high school, spent the week-end with homefolks near Sedalia.

W. A. Mayfield, of Pleasant Green, was a business visitor in Otterville, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Quint and daughter, Alice May, of near Pilot Grove, spent Sunday in the home of their son and brother, Virgil Quint.

Miss Lois and Miss Milo Bente, teachers in Kansas City and Jefferson City schools respectively, are spending the holidays with their mother, Mrs. Mina Bente.

Clyde Nichols, who is attending Westminster College at Fulton, is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Nichols, for the Thanksgiving holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Fairfax report their daughters, Mrs. T. Q. Lewis and Miss Nola Fairfax, of Kansas City, who were recently injured in an automobile accident, to be improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. Sam Wright (colored) a progressive farmer's wife, near Otterville, has a fine flock of 170 White Wyandotte hens, and gathers from 46 to 47 eggs a day.

Parsons →

Nichols

(over)