

Mrs. N. A. Smith, 62, Dies at Haines, Kans.

Former Otterville Woman Had
Been in Poor Health for
Some Time

Mrs. N. A. Smith, former resident of Otterville community, died in Haines, Kans., Tuesday night after having been in poor health for some time.

Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church at Otterville Thursday afternoon followed by burial in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. Smith's maiden name was Miss Alice Bane. She was born near Otterville about sixty-two years ago, and lived there until twenty-four years ago until the family moved to Kansas where they have since resided.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married October 7, 1880. Four sons and three daughters were born to this union, and the husband and five children survive. The children are: Shields R. Smith, of St. Louis; Mrs. Mattie Ellis, Colorado; Mrs. Ida Smallwood, of near Haines, Kans.; and Bane and Berry, Colorado. Mrs. Smith leaves two sisters, Mrs. Walter Homan, of near Smithton, and Mrs. Lee Ross, of Versailles, and one brother, James Bane, of Otterville.

Mrs. Smith was a member of the Presbyterian church, and was a devoted wife and mother, who is remembered in her old home community for her many splendid attributes of character.
