

OTTERVILLE

(Mrs. H. Roger Starke)

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Glascock, Mrs. Katie Ray and Elder Lloyd Sapp of Ashland spent Sunday in the home of Mrs. E. J. Brubaker. Mrs. Ray remained for a longer visit.

Miss Lillian Taylor left Saturday for Lincoln, Nebr., after a few days' visit with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. May R. Gorman returned home Tuesday after an extended visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lowell Cleavenger, of Marysville, Kans.

Miss Eva Sampson came from near Windsor Thursday to the home of her brother, the Rev. Wm. Sampson, where she expects to make her home for the present time.

Herbert Kuhn spent Sunday with relatives near Prairie Home. Mrs. Kuhn accompanied him home after a week's visit.

Mrs. J. H. Hupp, who has been confined to her home because of illness, is improving.

Mrs. Florence Lewis was called to Tipton the past week by the critical illness and death of Thelma Lea Rennison, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rennison, who died at the home Sunday following an illness with pneumonia, and was buried at Tipton Monday afternoon. She is survived by the parents and a younger brother, also the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rennison. The family for many years lived in the Otterville community. Mrs. Lewis is an aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rennison.

Mrs. E. A. W. Schupp returned from St. Louis the first of the
