Silas Tucker Dies; Rites at Peninsula

70-year-old Nelson Man In Several Years—Services To Be Held Tomorrow.

Silas Edward Tucker, 70, died yesterday morning at 8 o'clock at his home two miles south of Nelson. He had been ill for several years.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at Peninsula church in charge of the Rev. J. B. Bomar of Tipton, a former pastor of the church. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Tucker was born November 19, 1865, in Boonville. He was married on September 5, 1889 in Boonville to Sarah Elizabeth King. He was a deacon in the Peninsula church, of which he had been a member for 18 years. For a number of years he was superintendent and teacher in the Sunday school there.

Surviving are his wife; three daughters, Mrs. Una Marshall of Bunceton, Mrs. William Gash of Blackwater, and Mrs. Newton Dix of Nelson, and four sisters, Mrs. George Fluke and Mrs. H. L. Drennen of Boonville, Mrs. I. M. Verts of Nelson, and Mrs. Urban Smith of Kansas City; and two brothers, James T. Tucker and Tyre Tucker, of Boonville, and 16 grandchildren.
