IRVING COLE DIES FOLLOWING INJURY

Funeral Services Were Held At Syracuse Tuesday; Burial At Pilot Grove

Irving Cole died at the Bothwell Hospital in Sedalia following an accident Saturday. Mr. Cole was riding to Syracuse in the back of a truck belonging to George Putnam. He fell from the truck and was not known until the party arrived in Syracuse. He was taken to Bothwell Hospital with his skull crushed.

Irving Cole was the son of the late Stephen and Josephine Bryant Cole. He was born in Cooper County March 18, 1874 and was united in marriage to Miss Porte Coffman who have resided near Syracuse since their marriage.

Besides his widow, he is survived by three brothers, Hob Cole of Sedalia, George Cole of near Syracuse and W. B. Cole of Mt. Nebo.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Syracuse Baptist church with the Rev. J. B. Bomar of Tipton officiating. Burial was made at Pilot Grove. Pallbearers were nephews of Mr. Cole, Ferrie L., Porter, Ernest, Noel, Clarence and Carl Cole.
