

James S. Bane Dies At Age of 76 Years

OTTERVILLE, Mo.—James S. Bane, well-known resident of this community, died July 24 at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. W. Wear, following an illness of a few weeks. He was 76 years old.

Mr. Bane, the son of the late Robert and Virginia Bane, was born Feb. 4, 1864, at Canton, Mo. He was married Dec. 1, 1886, to Miss Ross Smith who preceded him in death April 4, 1931. Mr. Bane is survived by two daughters, Mrs. A. W. Wear and Mrs. T. E. Wear; one son, Ardie Bane, and ten grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Otterville Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member. The pastor, the Rev. S. G. McCluney, officiated. Active pallbearers were six grandsons: Loren and P. A. Bane, Glen, James, Raymond and T. E. Wear, Jr. Honorary pallbearers were J. M. Bente, W. W. Anthony, H. M. Adams, A. B. Strain, Jesse Wilson and E. S. Shoemaker. Burial was in the Otterville I. O. O. F. cemetery.