Charles Martain Case

Charles Martain Case, 77 years old, died at his home, 311 North Grand avenue, about 12:45 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been ill for several months with heart trouble.

Mr. Case was born in Monroe, Green county, Wisconsin, November 15, 1863, the son of the late Samuel Skidmore and Elizabeth Miller Case. As a young boy he came with his parents to reside in Missouri, making their home near Blackwater. He grew to manhood here and received his education at Blackwater.

In 1896 he was married to Idell Mercereau and to this union were born eight children. Melissa Idell passed away when but three weeks old, and Charles Delos Case died in his seventeenth year.

Surviving are his widow of the family home and the following children, Mrs. Dulcie McHugh of Port Townsend, Washington; Mrs. Charlotte Solomon, 1807 West Broadway, Mrs. Faye Parker of Clinton, Mrs. Clara Crump of Cleveland, ~~O.~~ ~~Rex Case of the~~ home and Aubrey B. Case of Sedalia. Ten grandchildren, two brothers, Lige Case of Blackwater and Hi Case of Otterville, also survive.

Mr. Case united with the First Baptist church in Sedalia in 1933.

Funeral services will be held at the First Baptist church at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with the Reverend R. W. Leazer, pastor of the church, to officiate.

Pall bearers will be the following friends: Bob Wilson, Clem Yessen, Marvin Hopper, Harlan Morris, Jesse Thomas and Pete Launwell.

Interment will be in the Crown Hill cemetery in the family lot.

The body will remain at the Gillespie Funeral Home until the time for the funeral.
