Mrs. J. E. Rennison Dies After Illness

Mrs. Georgia Rennison passed away Thursday evening, December 20, following a long illness.

Miss Georgia Steele was born in Cooper county, September 11, 1864, the daughter of the late John O. Steele and Elizabeth Batten Steele. She was united in marriage to J. Ed Rennison, who preceded her in death on March 15, 1937.

She spent her early life in Cooper county and attended the rural schools. She is a member of the Boonville Baptist church.

Mrs. Rennison is survived by one brother, William H. Steele, of near Boonville and two sisters, Mrs. E. V. Muntzel of St. Louis and Mrs. J. T. Toler of Columbia.

Her husband, J. E. Rennison, was engaged in insurance and real estate business in Boonville up to the time of his death.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Stegner and Koenig Funeral Home with the services in charge of Dr. Glenn Farr, pastor of the Boonville Baptist church. Burial will be in Walnut Grove cemetery.

The body will lie in state at the Stegner and Koenig Funeral Home until time of the services.
