

Mrs. Reddenbaugh Victim Of Polio

SOUTH MONITEAU—Private funeral rites were held July 24 at the Moreau Cemetery south of Clarksburg for Mrs. Norma Lorene Reddenbaugh, 26, who died of infantile paralysis at St. Mary's hospital in Kansas City July 22.

She had been a patient there for a week after being stricken with the disease which paralyzed her lungs. During her hospitalization she was kept in an iron lung.

The Rev. Roy Martin conducted the brief services. Pallbearers were her uncles, Will and Ed Moore, Virgil Henry and Emmett Howard.

Mrs. Reddenbaugh was the former Miss Norma Lorene Moore, daughter of J. P. Moore and the late Norma Moore. She was born at Rolfe, Iowa, January 27, 1920 and came to Latham with her parents in 1929. Her mother died in 1930.

She was graduated from the Latham high school in 1935 and then taught two terms of school, one at Pleasant Grove and the other at Oak Dale. When the Lake City City Ammunition plant opened near Independence, Mo., she was employed there where she met Charles Reddenbaugh whom she married September 10, 1943.

Her husband served for three years as a first lieutenant in the air corps in Europe until his discharge several months ago.

Mrs. Reddenbaugh was a member of the Pilot Grove Baptist church near Latham.

She is survived by her husband, two year old daughter, Norma Jane, of Kansas City; her father, J. P. Moore and stepmother, Mrs. Rilla Moore, of California, Mo., and a brother, Harold Moore of Latham. A brother, Eugene Moore and three sisters, Mrs. Grace Woodard, Irene and Dorothy Moore preceded her in death.

Atkinson Funeral Rites Are Held

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon for Mrs. Clarence W. Atkinson. The rites were conducted at the Atkinson home south of Boonville by the Rev. William Ratje of Pilot Grove. Burial was in Walnut Grove Cemetery here.

Pallbearers were Denver Selsor, Paul Schlotzhauer, Eugene Schlotzhauer, Harold Garrett, John Garrett and Joe Grathwohl.

Funeral Services For F. L. Berry

OTTERVILLE—Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Otterville Methodist church for Franklin Lee Berry, who died at the Veterans Hospital in Wadsworth, Kans., early Saturday morning. He had been a patient there for a week.

The services were in charge of Elder Lloyd Sapp of Ashland, assisted by the Rev. H. A. Wood, pastor of the Otterville Methodist church. Interment was in the Otterville cemetery.

Mr. Berry had been in failing health for some time and had spent the past several months in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berry. He was born July 27, 1898, at Otterville and died on his forty-eighth birthday.

His parents, W. A. and Susan Berry have lived here for many years and Franklin Berry grew to manhood here, graduating from the Otterville High school. He was married to Miss Gladys Ann Norris, who with one son, Franklin Lee Berry, jr., survives. Other survivors are two sisters, Mrs. John P. Dunham of Otterville, Mrs. William E. Fink, Rolla and one brother, L. E. Berry, Lexington.

He was a veteran of World War I. Mrs. Berry, who continued making her home in Kansas City where she was employed, was with her husband at the time of his death.
