Illness Fatal To Mrs. McMahan, 86

McMahan

Mrs. Carrie DeHaven McMahan, 86, died at St. Joseph's Hospital at 9 p. m. yesterday after an illness of two weeks.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Goodman and Boller Funeral Chapel at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow with burial in Walnut Grove Cemetery. The Rev. J. R. Gregg, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, will conduct the rites. The body will remain at the chapel until time for the rites.

She is survived by one son, Percy E. McMahan of Blackwater; a sister, Mrs. H. E. Marshall, San Jose, Calif.; a granddaughter, two grandsons, and two great-grandsons.

Mrs. McMahan was born at Selma, Ala., May 4, 1861, the daughter of David and Mary Dobyne DeHaven. She spent most of her life in this community, however. She was married to Jesse McMahan in Christ Episcopal church Jan. 14, 1885. Mr. McMahan died in 1929.

Mrs. McMahan attended Haines Institute here and the University of Mississippi.

She was the oldest member of Christ Episcopal Church.

Mrs. McMahan also was a member of the Order of Eastern Star and the United Daughters of the Confederacy.
