

* Otterville

Mrs. H. Roger Starke

D. B. Mayfield, stockman shipped to the St. Louis market, Monday, 23 head of mixed cattle, averaged 559 lbs. and sold for $32 per cwt. Mayfield has had these cattle on feed since, July 1. He accompanied the shipment.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Case from Kansas City spent Saturday and Sunday with his uncle H. D. Case; Mrs. Mattie Case and Mrs. Maude Woolery from Blackwater also were guests; Saturday and Sunday in the homes of Mr. Case and his daughter, Mrs. Thos. Nichols and Mr. Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Langdon, Mrs. Lewis Momberg, daughters, Linda and Sandra from Sedalia came to the home of their brothers, Wm. Langdon and John Langdon, where they served a dinner honoring the birthday anniversary of their brother, Wm. Langdon.

Harold Young from state department of education at Jefferson City and county superintendent of Cooper county schools, C. A. Repp from Boonville visited the school, here Wednesday.

Mrs. Maggie M. Fairfax visited friends here Monday after visiting in the home of her son, Hugh Fairfax, near Sedalia. Mrs. Fairfax plans to spend the winter with relatives in the state of California.

The Women's Auxillary to the American Legion, George Clark Harlan Post 84 held the regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon at the Legion Hall. Preceding the business session the bulding was thoroughly cleaned and the floors waxed. With the help of members in the Legion many improvements business session the building was cluding complete redecoration. The members of the Auxillary recently purchased a piano that has been placed in the hall. The business session of the meeting was directed by the president, Mrs. J. H. Parsons. Plans were made for a Halloween party for Legion and Auxillary members to be held at 7:30 o'clock at the Legion hall, on Thursday night, Oct. 28. Prizes will be awarded to those in costumes and a social evening is to be enjoyed.

Mrs. Linnie Williams went to Kansas City last Tuesday to visit in the home of her son, Nelson Carver.

Mrs. Durwood Goode and son, Charles, Mrs. Ralph C. Williams, and Mrs. Earl S. Leaton have returned from Kansas City where they attended the State Parent-Teachers assiciation annual convention. Mrs. Goode and son also visited in the home of her brother, Nelson Carver. Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Leaton were guests in the home of Mrs. E. L. Smith and her daughter, Miss Norma Mae Busch.

Friends of Mrs. J. W. Ben Klein are glad to know that she has sufficiently recovered from a critical illness of typhoid fever and its complications to permit her to be out about her home and to walk down town.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodson W. Cockrill of Mexico spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Golladay.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Golladay of St. Louis spent Saturday and Sunday at their home here and were also guests of his uncle, J. E. Golladay and Mrs. Golladay.

The Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Drake, daughter and son of California, were guests last Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Castle. The Rev. Drake is pastor of the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. A. H. Speaker has recently