

SEDALIA DEMOCRAT
19 DEC 1950 6/2

Funeral of Mrs. Starke

Funeral services for Mrs. Gladys Lee Starke, 67, Otterville, wife of H. Roger Starke, who died Sunday at the Bothwell Memorial hospital, were held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the Otterville Methodist church. The Rev. H. A. Wood and the Rev. William Sampson officiated.

Pallbearers were Edgar Lewis, Weller, Hockaday, P. C. Hayes, J. A. Gunn, J. Lawrence Moore and Preston Hayes.

Burial was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Otterville. The body remained at the Hayes-Painter chapel until 12:30 o'clock when it was taken to the church.

Melvin Woolery

Melvin Woolery, 80, was found dead at his home, 527 East Howard street, at 3:45 p. m. Monday by Leo Schulz of the same address. Death was due to a heart attack, according to Coroner C. Gordon Stauffacher.

Mr. Woolery was born August 11, 1870 in Cooper county, the son of the late Francis and Matilda Woolery. He had been a resident of Sedalia for 40 years. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Guy Woolery, 1718 South Park avenue; four sons Ernest of Sedalia, Randolph, who is in the Veterans hospital in Wadsworth, Kas., Hubert and Fred Woolery of Kansas City; one sister Mrs. Nellie Hood of Sedalia and five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at the McLaughlin chapel Wednesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. The Rev. Arthur Freeburg, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, will officiate. Mrs. Mac Moser will have charge of the music and friends will serve as pallbearers.

Interment will be in the Crown Hill cemetery.