

1/5

Rites Are Held For Mrs. C. H. Kuykendall

OTTERVILLE, Feb. 6—Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian church for Mrs. C. H. Kuykendall, 69, who died unexpectedly at her home in Otterville Wednesday night, Jan. 30, following a heart attack.

The Rev. Louis Drake conducted the rites and pallbearers were T. L. Wear, A. W. Wear, Ernest Wear, James Wear, Clyde Wear, and E. A. W. Schupp. Burial was in the IOOF cemetery.

Mrs. Berdie Kuykendall was born April 12, 1881, the daughter of Edwin and Martha Bartlett, and spent her entire life in this community. She was married April 23, 1923 to Charles Kuykendall who survives as do the following stepchildren: Mylin B. Kuykendall, Winona, Minn., Mrs. Robert Taylor, Speed, Raymond Kuykendall and John Kuykendall, both of Otterville. She also leaves a sister, Mrs. Hattie Shaver of Lockwood, five grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

1/7

Funeral Rites For Mrs. Sallie Smith

OTTERVILLE, Feb. 6—Funeral rites for Mrs. Sallie Luckett Smith, 89, of Otterville, wife of the late J. William Smith, were held at the Presbyterian church here Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 30. The Rev. Louis Drake officiated. Pallbearers were Ira DeHaven, T. E. Wear, Thomas Nicholas, Laurence Moore, A. L. Schilb, and L. J. Castle. Burial was in the Otterville cemetery.

Mrs. Smith died in an Oklahoma City hospital Sunday, Jan. 28. She had been in ill health, and for the past five months had been living with a daughter, Mrs. L. W. Cary in Oklahoma City.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Cary and Mrs. A. R. Merritt of Sherrill, Ark.; two sons, G. L. Smith of Lawrence, Kans., and Leo J. Smith of Otterville; two sisters, Miss Catharine Luckett of St. Louis and Mrs. H. H. Hurst of Wichita, Kans.; a brother, Sam Luckett of Georgia; three grandsons, Jack S. Smith, Otterville, Luckett McNeil Smith, Lawrence, Kans., and Wickliffe Cary, Oklahoma City, Okla.; and several nieces and nephews.