Miss Marie Smith Dies In Kansas City

Miss Marie Esther Smith, who had been making her home at Kay Hotel, Kansas City, died Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock at General Hospital, Kansas City, after a short illness.

Miss Smith was born April 2, 1897, the daughter of C. F. and Mary Gabe Smith. She was a member of the Methodist church.

She had been employed by a Kansas City real estate firm.

Surviving are four sisters, Mrs. William J. Hirlinger, Mrs. John Boehm, and Mrs. Henry H. Christman of Boonville, and Mrs. Caleb L. Bandy, Kansas City; and two brothers, Fred and Emmert of Perry, Okla.

The body will remain at the Stegner Funeral Home here until time for the rites, which will be held at the Stegner chapel tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. E. F. Abele will conduct the funeral services and burial will be in Walnut Grove cemetery.
