

St Louis Post Dispatch
8 Dec 1957

Married in Ohio

Miss Dittmar Bride Of James E. Case Jr., At Service in Ohio

FIRST ENGLISH LUTHERAN CHURCH in Marysville, O., was the scene Nov. 29 of the marriage of Miss Dorcas Ellen Dittmar, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. George Dittmar, to James E. Case Jr. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Case, 7825 Garden avenue, Webster Groves, who attended the wedding.

The Rev. Mr. Dittmar, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. Miss Clarice Dittmar, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and Miss Phyllis Froelich of Dover, O., as bridesmaid. The young women wore blue-green iridescent taffeta gowns with scoop necklines, three-quarter sleeves and full skirts. Matching leaves formed their headbands. Their flowers were yellow chrysanthemums and bronze pompons arranged with copper-sprayed clusters of wheat.

The former Miss Dittmar was in a taffeta gown trimmed with lace. Her veil was gathered to an orange blossom crown. She carried a prayerbook marked with a white orchid.

Serving as best man was Karl Woodson of St. Clair

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH Sun., Dec. 8, 1957 9-1

Shores, Mich., while ushers were Paul Dittmar, brother of the bride, and Robert Dittmar, her cousin.

The reception was given at the Dittmar home. The bride and bridegroom will live in Clayton.

The bride, who holds a B.S. degree in medical technology from Wittenberg College, Springfield, O., has been employed in the chemistry department of the Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, O. She is a member of Delta Zeta sorority and Beta Beta Beta, honorary biology society. Her husband, a scientific computer programmer and analyst at McDonnell Aircraft Corp., was graduated from Webster Groves High School and from Washington University with a degree in electrical engineering and served four years with the Air Force. He is a member of Tau Beta Pi, engineering honorary, and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia music fraternity.

MRS. JAMES E. CASE JR.