

Boonville Weekly Advertiser

28 Mar 1958

Sec 2 6/1

* Speed

Mrs. Anna Childs

Mr. and Mrs. Aubra Cary quietly celebrated their 24th wedding anniversary at their home on St. Patrick's day, heir son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Bill Browning and children Sandra Louise and Stephen of St. Joseph and their two sons David and Danny were all present.

Mrs. Lon Chamberlin who entered the St. Joseph hospital Tuesday of last week is reported improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Williams and son David Edward of Columbia were guests Wednesday of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Williams.

Mrs. Chas. Cary was a guest Friday and Saturday with her son, Leslie R. Cary, Mrs. Cary and Kenneth of near Boonville.

Mrs. Della Cary and her guest Mrs. Rhoda Smith were dinner guests Tuesday of Mrs. Kathryn Wendleton of Bunceon.

Bonnie Overahiner of Boonville spent from Friday until Sunday here with David and Danny Cary.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cornine and family of Woodriver Ill., spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Jerry French, and Mr. French.

Miss Anna Weldner, Mrs. Chas. Leonard Jr., Miss Frances Williams and Miss Carol Jean Stegner of this community and members of Bunceon high attended science day held at Columbia Friday. Miss Leonard is science teacher at Bunceon.

Mrs. George Bryan was a guest Friday and Saturday of Mrs. Ruby Downs of Sedalla.

Don Rowlin of Boonville was a guest in Mrs. Childs Sunday school class at the Union church here Sunday.

Howard Ross Moore was a overnight guest of his school friend Larry Doty of near Bunceon Thursday night, and also attended a class party held at the home of their teacher Mrs. Chas. Leonard Jr. at Ravenswood that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cary and children of Tipton were supper guests Saturday of his mother, Mrs. Cary and Mrs. Rhoda Smith.

Quite a number of students at Bunceon high and their parents from here attended the musical concert and dance held at the school house Friday night.

John Arnold returned home Tuesday from the St. Joseph hospital in Boonville where he had been a patient for several days he is improved.

An Easter program will be presented here at the Union church 10 o'clock Easter Sunday morning by the Leslie Cary Bible class with Miss Grace Cary and Mrs. Dennis Williams in charge of the program.

George W. Chamberlin was a guest Sunday of his son George Hall Chamberlin and family of Clarks Fork.

The Rev. D. McClynn of Marshall conducted preaching services at the Bellair Methodist church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell Painter and children and Mrs. Less Painter were visitors in Columbia Monday.

Guests Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Muntzel were Mrs. Danny Oswald and Mrs. Stricklen of Sedalla and Mrs. Jewell Nash of Kansas City spent Friday and Saturday with her parents, and on Monday Miss Doris Muntzel of Lake Forest, Ill., came for a visit with her parents. Mrs. Muntzel's condition is reported about the same.

Mrs. Robert Painter and children of Pilot Grove were Wednesday evening guests of Mrs. Less Painter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fortman and children and Mrs. Less Painter visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Roe of Syracuse. Mr. Roe who has been ill is improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Jeffress of Lamine spent from Thursday until Saturday with their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Birge and daughters Miss Sandra and Patty.

Judy K. Nelson of Bunceon was an overnight guest Friday of her cousin Della Foster and both girls attended the concert and dance at the high school at Bunceon on that night.

Mr. and Mrs. David Degraffenfeld and son Dwyll of Boonville were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Aubra Cary.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mary and son Kenneth of near Boonville and Donald Roland of Boonville were Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Chas. Cary and Miss Grace Cary.

Miss Bonnie Doyle of Boonville visited here Saturday with Mrs. Childs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Painter and sons were Sunday evening guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Edison Haller of near Prairie Lick.