

BOONVILLE DAILY NEWS
25 Jan 1967 12/2

Mrs. Nora O. Cram

✓ OTTERTVILLE--Funeral services for Mrs. Nora O. Cram, 88, of Otterville, were held Saturday at the Otterville Baptist Church. Burial was in the IOOF Cemetery, with the Rev. Ervin Benz, church pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Cram died Thursday at a Sedalia hospital. She was born Jan. 7, 1879, in Cooper County, the daughter of James E. Neal and Margaret E. Weeden Neal. In 1902, she moved to the state of Washington, returning to Otterville in April, 1966. She was a member of the Otterville Baptist Church.

On Nov. 19, 1902, she was married to Ambrose Cram. He died March 2, 1963.

Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Mae Speaker, of Otterville; four nieces, Mrs. Fern Matthews, Mrs. Eugene Diefendorf of Kansas City, and Mrs. Lucy Speaker and Mrs. Edith Gochenour, both of Otterville; and four nephews, the Rev. L.C. Neal of Sedalia, Ervin Neal, Walter Speaker of Kansas City and Vernon Neal of Weaubleau.