

Boonville Daily News
29 Jan 1968 8/2

...Davis, Roy Beckman, Charles E. Whitten and Kenneth Blankenbaker.

Honorary escorts were Roy Pollard, J.R. Hancock, John Mueller, T.D. Newsom, L.R. Kircher, Otto Wilmsmeyer, Fred Prior and Fabian Ginter.

Harry W. Cropp

Harry W. Cropp, 87, of Glasgow, died Friday at Keller Memorial Hospital in Fayette. Funeral services and burial were held Sunday in Glasgow.

Mr. Cropp was born Aug. 2, 1880, in Glasgow, a son of Charles Cropp and Malinda Marshall Cropp. In 1940, he was married to Nannie Morrison, who died in 1956.

Survivors include one sister, Mrs. Bonnie Langhorn of Glasgow and one brother, Bruce Cropp of Des Moines, Iowa.

Mrs. Georgia Hanley

Mrs. Georgia Hanley, 68, of Independence, died Tuesday at her home. She was the mother of Lovell Jackmond of Boonville.

Mrs. Hanley was a member of the Second Baptist Church.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Independence.

Survivors include her husband, Wade Hanley of the home; two sons, Dan Robert Hill of Chicago and Lovell Jackmond of Boonville; three daughters, Mrs. Beatrice Hawkins and Mrs. Helen Moreland, both of Independence, and Mrs. Rosammas Daniels of Kansas City; 12 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

James G. Robbins

James G. Robbins, 89, of Forsythe, a native of Glasgow, died Sunday at a nursing home. He was a retired real estate agent, and had lived in Kansas City for many years. He was a Presbyterian. Funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Survivors include one son, Morris M. Robbins of Forsythe; two daughters, Mrs. Mildred L. Matthews of Kansas City, Kan., and Mrs. Vanette Wood of Belleville, Ill.; two grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and one sister, Mrs. Annie Sick of Newton, Kan.

Mrs. Hubert Smith

Funeral services for Mrs. Hubert Smith of Sedalia, whose death occurred at 3:40 a.m. Sunday, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Gillespie Funeral Home in Sedalia. Burial will be in Memorial Park Cemetery, Sedalia.

Mrs. Smith died at Bothwell Hospital, Sedalia, following an illness of several years.

Born July 5, 1891, she was married to John Parrot, whose death occurred in 1949, and in 1957 she was married to Hubert Smith, who survives.

Other survivors include one daughter, Mrs. James Glenn of Raytown; two grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; two stepdaughters, Mrs. Jack Dixon of Burlingame, Calif., and Mrs. Cecil-Brown of New Franklin; two stepsons, Lowell H. Smith and Albert F. Smith, both of New Franklin; seven stepchildren and three stepgrandchildren.

launched at a farm meeting at Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 8. Sponsored by the Missouri Farmers association, it will feature a speech by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Seldom have as many as half of the feed grain growers taken part in the program.

The feed-grain signup program will be conducted at local levels, with county agricultural stabilization and con-

JESSE

Continued from page 1

Burial was in the Bunceton Masonic Cemetery, under the supervision of the Richards Funeral Home of Tipton.

Escorts were Porter Wilson, Don McKnight, Leonard Gerhardt, Farris Floyd, George Dicus and Herbert Warmbrodt Sr.

MISS

Continued from page 1

ler, and to return to Tara. The monologue began just as Rhett had walked out, "for the last time," on Scarlett.

Judges, all from the St. Louis area, were Bob Holt, a television variety show host; Miss Helen Gummersheimer, a teacher in the Clayton school system; Mrs. Dianne White, a television station weather forecaster; Arthur Verback, director of personnel at Washington University; and Dave Allen, executive producer of a television station in St. Louis.

Holt and Jim Butler, a radio personality of St. Louis, served as masters of ceremonies.

Other finalists in the contest were Joan Sommerer of Jefferson City, Joetta Amedei of Macon,

Hospital Notes

ST. JOSEPH HOSPITAL

Detail Report