

Homan, Holem united in marriage

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Holem

Judy Ann Homan and Richard Earl Holem were united in marriage on April 16 at 2:30 p.m. at the First Baptist Church, Otterville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Homan, Otterville, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Holem, Stover.

The Rev. Dennis Crowder performed the double ring ceremony. The white bridal carpet led to the altar illuminated by a pair of seven branch candelabras decorated with ivy and stephenotis.

The church and reception area were decorated with many daffodils and other spring flowers. Mrs. Donald Zmsteg, organist, accompanied Mrs. Dale Montgomery who sang "The Wedding Song," "If," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white chantilly lace gown. The sabrina neckline enhanced the fitted bodice and a natural waist was encircled by a satin ribbon. Long fitted sleeves were edged with tins ruffles. Tiers of ruffles made their way down the sides of the full skirt. To complete her attire she wore a three tiered illusion secured to a lace head piece.

Mrs. A.J. Marshall, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Bonnie Williams and Miss Dona Holem, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. The maid of honor and the bridesmaids wore identical long pink knit dresses with sheer flowered capes coming to a point in the front and back.

Wayne Homan and Glen Homan, brothers of the bride, were candlelighters. Miss Kathy Phillips, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Jeffery Holem, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer.

John Holem Jr., brother of the groom, was the best man. Charley Homan, brother of the bride, and Bob Holem, brother of the groom, were groomsmen. Joe Holem, uncle of the groom and Homer Homan, uncle of the bride, were the ushers.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. Miss Tammy Wolfe was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Ray Ellison, Mrs. William Helden, and Mrs. Johnnie Ehlers helped with gifts. Those serving were Mrs. John Holem Jr., Mrs. Bob Holem, Mrs. Charles Brodersen, and Mrs. Allen Stahl. Also helping were Mrs. Edgar Phillips and Mrs. Arthur Fry.

The bride chose a mint green, three-piece pantsuit for traveling on a honeymoon to the Lake of the Ozarks.

The parents of the groom hosted the rehearsal dinner April 15 in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a graduate of the Otterville High School, and State Fair Community College and is employed as a teller at Third National Bank, Sedalia.

Bornville Daily News
5/16 May 1978 4/3-8