

Sedalia Democrat
6 Aug 1978

4A/1

Wallace E. Smith

Wallace E. Smith, 55, 106½ South Ohio, died at his home early Friday morning.

He was born at Sedalia, Dec. 13, 1922, son of the late Frank I. and Lola Campbell Smith.

Survivors include a son, Ricky Smith, state of Minnesota; four brothers, Forrest Smith, 1020 East 13th; Charles M. Smith, Stover; Paul B. Smith, 1101 South Massachusetts; Donald Smith, 801 East 11th; two sisters, Mrs. John (Mary) Dale, Hughesville; and Mrs. Melvin (Sharon) Keele, Miami, Fla.

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. Monday at the Ewing Funeral Home with the Rev. Sid Mabry Jr., officiating.

Pallbearers will be Michael E. Smith, David E. Schlons, Kenneth Miller, Lawrence Smith, W. D. Miller and James Gosnell.

Burial will be in Crown Hill Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday at the funeral home.

Mrs. Anna May Kremer

WARRENSBURG — Mrs. Anna May Kremer, 68, died Friday at her home here.

She was born Jan. 15, 1910, in Magnolia, Mo., daughter of the late Lloyd and Laura Spence Shadwick. She attended grade school in Green Ridge, and graduated from LaMonte High School in 1927.

She moved here from Clearwater, Fla., in 1968, and since then had been manager of the Belmont Motel here.

She was married to Nicholas Julius Kremer June 23, 1928, in Kansas City, Kan. Mr. Kremer died Nov. 25, 1966.

She was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church here.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. R.H. (Betty) Utley, Knob Noster; one son, Nicholas J. Kremer Jr., Rawlins, Wyo.; one sister, Beulah Willett, Monrobia, Calif.; one brother, Richard Shadwick, Stover; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the church here, with Father Michael Coleman officiating.

Burial will be in Sunset Hills Cemetery here.

A wake service will be held at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Sweeney-Phillips Chapel here.

Edward A. Ficken

LaMONTE — Edward Amos Ficken, 85, Route 3, died Saturday at Bothwell Hospital in Sedalia.

He was born Feb. 10, 1893, at Ionla, son of the late Peter W. and Margaret M. Schluesing Ficken. He married Allene Mahin, in March, 1914, and she died July 6, 1964. He married Kathryn Snow in November, 1965, who survives.

He was a resident here for 60 years and was a retired farmer and stockman. He was a member of the LaMonte Methodist Church and a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Odd Fellows.

Surviving are a son, Kenneth Ficken, Route 2, Knob Noster; a step-daughter, Mrs. Dale Elwell, LaMonte; one sister, Mrs. Viola Coffman, 422 West Fifth; two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday at the church with the Rev. Galen Cope officiating.

Burial will be in the Knob Noster Cemetery.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday at the Moore Funeral Home here.