

Warrensburg Daily
Star Journal
18 Nov 1986 9/1

Daisy V. Lund

Mrs. Daisy V. Lund, 80, Warrensburg, died on Sunday, Nov. 16, 1986, at her home.

She was born on Dec. 30, 1905, in Johnson County, to Miles and Emma Elizabeth Smith Thomas.

On July 26, 1926, she married Rolla Close in Kansas City. He preceded her in death.

Mrs. Lund had been employed with City Steam Laundry, Town and Country Shoe Factory, Townhouse Restaurant and the Head Start Program, all located in Warrensburg.

She was a member of Bethel Baptist Church, Warrensburg.

Mrs. Lund is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Vernon (Jessie) Williams, Warrensburg; Mrs. Adelia Campbell, Warrensburg; Mrs. Eugene (Lenora) Duval, Lake Jackson, Texas, and Mrs. Jim (Elizabeth) Stewart, Ontario, Calif., and three sons, Rolla Close Jr., Kansas City; Donald Close, West Columbia, Texas, and Ronald Close, Warrensburg.

Also surviving are two stepdaughters, Mrs. Jim (Mary) Hon, Warrensburg, and Mrs. Ray (Sandra) Jennings, Seattle, Wash., and three stepsons, John Lund, Purcell, and Bobby and Charles Lund, both of Warrensburg.

Other survivors include three sisters, Martha Raffler and Lorraine Buckner, both of Kalamazoo, Mich., and Mrs. Jim (Julia) Iseminger, Warrensburg; two brothers, Ted and Lawrence Thomas, 17 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 19, at Sweeney-Phillips Chapel.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. on Thursday, Nov. 20, at Bethel Baptist Church, Highway 13 North.

Burial will take place in Sunset Hill Cemetery.

The family suggests memorial contributions to the Lupus Foundation or Bethel Baptist Church.