

Deaths

Grace E. Harms

Grace E. Harms, 87, of Sweet Springs, died Thursday, May 9, 1991, at Sweet Springs Caring Center.

Funeral services will be held at 1:30 p.m., Sunday, May 12, at Berg Mortuary in Sweet Springs. Rev. James H. Shrieves will officiate. Marilyn Guier will be the organist. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery in Sweet Springs. Visitation will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Saturday at the funeral home. Memorials are suggested to Wesley United Methodist Church in Sweet Springs or Community Hospital.

Born Dec. 15, 1903, in Saline County, she was the daughter of the late Charles and Hallie Mayse Aldridge. On Sept. 6, 1922, in Sweet Springs, she married John H. Harms, who survives of the home. She was a member of Wesley United Methodist Church and was a lifelong resident of the area. She was a housewife and had been employed as a food processor at Banquet Foods for 10 years.

Survivors include three daughters, Pansy Treece of Concordia, Mo., and Pearl Bray and Sandra Curry of Sedalia, Mo.; two grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; and three great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by four brothers and a sister.