David W. Kempf, 54

David William Kempf, 54, of Jefferson City, Mo., died Saturday, Nov. 25, 2006, at St. Marys Medical Center.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 10 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 30, 2006, at St. Peter Catholic Church, Jefferson City, with the Rev. Msgr. Donald W. Lammers officiating. Burial will be in Resurrection Cemetery. Visitation will be 3-8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 29th, at Dulle-Trimble Funeral Home, Jefferson City, with the Rosary recited at 7:30 p.m.

David W. Kempf

He was born on Dec. 27, 1951, in Boonville, the son of Harold Herman and Mary Ann Schuster Kempf, who survive in Boonville. He was married on Feb. 5, 1977 in Lenexa, Kan., to Candace Lynn Johnson, who survives at the home.

Mr. Kempf was a 1970 graduate of Boonville High School and received a Bachelor of Science in civil engineering from the University of Missouri in 1974.

He was a professional engineer with R.W. Booker Engineering, St. Louis; and Lutz Daily & Brain Engineering, Overland Park, Kan.; and was presently project manager with the Missouri Department of Conservation where he had been employed for the past 28 years.

He was a member of St. Peter Catholic Church, Holy Name Society, Pilot Grove Knights of Columbus Council, Missouri Right to Life, Association of Conservation Engineers and Operation Rescue.

He enjoyed bow hunting, canoeing, woodworking, and photography, but most of all his family.

Other survivors include three daughters: Lindsay Korte of Hartsburg, Mo., and Elizabeth Kempf and Margaret Kempf, both at home; two sons: Justin Kempf of Los Angeles, Calif., and Philip Kempf of Jefferson City; two grandchildren; four sisters: Mary Monnig of Glasgow, Mo., Linda Wassmann of Boonville, Carol Stupica of Lee's Summit, Mo., and Elaine Campbell of Phoenix, Ariz.; six brothers: Darryl Kempf of Boonville, Jerry Kempf of Columbia, Mo., Chris Kempf of Boonville, Charles Kempf of Texas, John Kempf of Boonville and Greg Kempf of Boonville.

Memorials are suggested to the Carmelite Monastery, Jefferson City; Kempf Children Education Fund; or any pro-life organization.
