 L. E. SHATTUCK, Having seen the necessity of great Improvement in the feeding hogs of this and the surrounding counties, I have determined to facilitate the farmer by placing here at home within easy reach, Breeding animals of the most approved and very latest Improved Stock. "And would respectfully solicit all who would sooner feed their corn to pigs that will make the most pork in the shortest time, with the least feed, and at the earliest age—to call at my yards in Albany, where I will at any time show with pleasure, Stock second to none in America. As I have not only those portrayed in this Atlas, but others of equal merit, all prize winners. And all either Imported or bred directly from stock having received the highest honors (by judges) and sold for the largest price of any hogs in England. For pedigrees, see Vol. 1, of the American Herd Book, or Berkshire record, page 62; British Sovereign, No. 53, page 91, No. 221; Lord Liverpool, page 290, No. 900; Royal Duchess. And for pedigree of Oxford Belle, 11, Jenny Lind, Sambo 2d, Young Sambo, "Miss" Queen, Lord Byron, Swiss Girl, Yankee Duchess and Gentry Belle, See Vol. 11, from names. In anticipation of giving to all my patrons entire satisfaction, will remain most respectfully
