**Denotes known burials but graves not marked

Pattern followed: Name, dates, parents, spouse and children, brothers and sisters (married names when known)
some other facts may also be included

Among the occupants of this cemetery is a part of the ashes of a female descendant of John Baxter & Frances (Hickman) Rippee. These ashes were sprinkled on her ancestors' graves ca. 1992, as well as sprinkled on graves of other "close connections" to the family. Some of her ashes were also sprinkled on graves in California, Arkansas and Oklahoma.

It may not be used for commercial purposes without consent of the contributor.

Located 4 1/2 miles west of the intersection of Highways 5 & 38 in downtown Hartville, MO, close to Pleasant Hill Free Will Baptist Church and on the hill east of the cemetery is an old building where many children learned readin', writin' and 'rithmetic at Pleasant Hill School. The cemetery is incorporated and very well maintained. I dedicate this work to those who lie silent here. May it never be forgotten that they are a part of us all.
