CARPENTER AND PATTERSON CEMETERIES

Recorded January 1968 By Betty R. Hanks
Typed By Jan Thies

Dr. Henrich Zimmerman left Switzerland in 1698 and settled in Pennsylvania, along with other members of the family. Carpenter is the American translation of the name Zimmerman--some of the family kept the name Zimmerman and some changed to the new name when they came to their new home. As the families grew they began to travel further afield and thence into North Carolina.

John Levi Carpenter - who married Elizabeth Keener, came with other members of the Carpenter and Keener families from Lincoln County North Carolina about 1843-47 and settled in Wayne County, Missouri around the area which we know as Keener Springs. To John and Elizabeth Carpenter were born nine children: Sarah E.; Henry A.; John W.; Ephraim R.; James M.; Margaret K.; Joseph; Lucy Ann; and Susan E. There was a grist mill at Keener Springs which was owned and operated by Ephraim Carpenter.

In 1849 Wayne County was divided into smaller counties and the dividing line of Wayne and the new county of Butler passed thru the community, whereby placing some of the Carpenter's and some of the Keener's in Butler and some in Wayne County. As the families grew larger they branched further out into the county and some of the Carpenter family settled near Poplar Bluff. Henry stayed in Wayne County, but Martin, Ephraim and John settled an area about 10 miles Northeast of Poplar Bluff on Black River. This soon became known as Carpenter Community, with Carpenter's Chapel being located on Martin Carpenter's land and about two miles further west of the Chapel at a bend in Black River is located what was and still is known as Carpenter's Bend, which was the popular gathering place for 4th of July Picnic's and family get-togethers for the Carpenter Clan.

CARPENTER AND PATTERSON CEMETERIES

The Carpenter Cemetery is located about eight miles from Poplar Bluff, you go two miles east from downtown Poplar Bluff on Hwy 60 to NN Hwy and turn left, go five miles to the end of the blacktop, turn left onto a gravel road and go one and one-half miles. You will then go down a short steep hill and right back up a hill. At the top of this hill on left hand side used to stand Carpenter's Chapel, the Cemetery was located back of the Chapel. The Chapel has long been gone having been blown down during a storm in 1921 and never rebuilt.

The Cemetery, located on the Steve and Catherine Sun Farm, has grown up in trees and brush till it is very difficult to tell where all of the graves are, it having been a good sized cemetery consisting of an acre or more. Some graves are marked only with large stones with no inscriptions and a few with weathered boards on which the writing is no longer legible. The few headstones which are found there have these names:

All Funeral Homes listed herein area have been at the time located in Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

- * Greer, Croy & Fitch Funeral Home
-  Frank Cotrell Funeral Home
-  Phelps Funeral Home
- * Frank Undertaking Company

There are several graves that had only stones that had none, or illegible inscriptions. As far as can be determined, there is no one who has kept a record of the burials here. There is one "community grave," which consists of a stone fence enclosing an area approximately five by ten feet. Local stories say that this is the grave of three Civil War Soldiers, or the graves of three horse thieves that were caught and hung.
