INTRODUCTION

The copying of the burial permit records for Lebanon Cemetery began in 1978. The purpose was to coordinate this information with that acquired by the reading of the head stones which began in the summer of 1979. Using this method, additional geneological information could be recorded when head stones lacked exact dates and in those instances when there was no head stone at all.

In the period of years from approximately 1885 to 1929, the burial permit records designated a black person's death with the mark of "C" or "Col." This practice was repeated in this record in the hope it might prove helpful to those searching for their ancestors because in many cases, the slaves took the name of their owners.

We would like to think this endeavor is without error but we are also certain this is not possible. Be assured we did our best. Our thanks go to the Laclede County Historical Society for the privilege of recording the Lebanon Cemetery for the benefit of future generations.

HISTORY OF THE LEBANON CEMETERY AND THE LEBANON CEMETERY ASSOCIATION

by Jess Easley

The Lebanon Cemetery had its beginning on September 26, 1857. On that date John B. Harrison and his wife, Martha, deeded four and one-half acres of land to a group of citizens to be used for a cemetery. This land is situated at the southwest corner of Highway 5 and Brice St. The earliest date found on a grave stone in the cemetery is Dec. 15, 1857. There are no remaining records of the early operation of this cemetery. In a newspaper article in 1899, it was stated that a number of soldiers were buried there and later exhumed and reburied in the Federal Cemetery at Springfield, Mo. It also stated that there was a large number of bodies moved from the McPhail Cemetery to this new cemetery. The cemetery on the McPhail place was on the north side of Ash St. near Harwood Ave. and was being abandoned. No name has been found for either of these cemeteries.

It can be assumed that this cemetery was not managed to the satisfaction of the public, for in 1872 the two Masonic Lodges (Center Lodge No. 410 A.F. and A.M. and Laclede Lodge No. 83 A.F. and A.M.) joined with Auglaize Lodge No. 192 I.O.O.F. (Odd Fellows), to provide a proper burial ground for the community. The final effort of these lodges resulted in the organization of the The Lebanon Cemetery Association under the laws prevailing at that time. Under this plan the lodges had the responsibility of appointing a Board of Trustees but had no authority over them or over the association. The trustees had sole authority for the operation of the association and held the title to the property. Through some arrangement, the trustees of the association took over the old cemetery that had its beginning in 1857 and through several purchases of land in the next thirty years, brought the cemetery up to its present twenty acres.

It is understood that the Lebanon Cemetery Association's records were destroyed by fire in 1885. A new set of books and records was set up and a new board of trustees was appointed. In 1920 when the court house burned, the legal records of the association were destroyed. At a later date, to clear up the association's legal status, David Donnelly, a trustee and attorney, instituted legal proceedings that reestablished the association under present day laws.

In the beginning, lots of ten grave spaces were sold for $40.00. The price of lots and grave spaces has remained low until quite recently. The present price of a full lot is $300, half lots are $175 and single grave spaces are $40. All funds received from the sale of lots and spaces are used for the operation of the cemetery. Surplus funds are accumulated in a special account and are used for perpetual care of the cemetery. Surplus funds are invested in first mortgage loans, bonds and bank certificates of deposit.

The secretary-treasurer, who sells the lots, keeps the records and has general supervision, is paid for these services. The trustees receive no compensation for their services. Many prominent business men have served as trustees, some for many years. Edward B. Kellerman, lawyer and abstractor, served as president from 1905 until 1942. Milan W. Searl, a druggist, served many long years as secretary. It is to him that we owe a debt of gratitude for the many beautiful trees. Mr. Kellerman called him the "Father of the Cemetery".

Some of the Sextons that have served since 1900 are: Thomas Root, Joseph Cross, Lindsay Alexander, Charlie Gordon, Charles McCallister, Paul Atchley, Daris Hoke and Vester Griffith. The community is grateful to all citizens who devoted time and energy to Lebanon Cemetery.
