Those names preceded by an asterisk were obtained from sources other than the tombstone census. Most often I was unable to check their accuracy.

Any letter or number which is underlined indicates the marker very difficult to read and should not be assumed correct.

Monuments bearing several names are spaced together.

Comparable stone: When stones in the immediate vicinity are of like style and color but bear different surnames it is noted: "Comp.(comparable) to John DOE".

The RADFORD FAMILY CEMETERY is no longer in existence. When the present owner of the land purchased it in the Thirties he found headstones scattered all around the area. He gathered them and placed them under a tree where they remain today. Located in Washington Township 48 N.-R. 27 W., Section 7. John M. & Rebecca RADFORD were among the early settlers from Kentucky.

Dover cemetery is located in the town of Dover. It is one of the earliest burial grounds in Lafayette county. The first death is said to be Martin TRAPP, in 1820. Second burial was William COLE, who laid out the cemetery. No marker was found for Mr. TRAPP. Many stones were discovered as deep as one foot under ground and it is likely many more gone from sight.

ALMA LUTHERAN CEMETERY

This cemetery lies just west of the junction of Highways 20 & 23. The land was originally owned by Thomas and William SHELBY, relatives of Missouri's General Jo SHELBY. Almost all of the older stones were cut in Old German script so some latitude must be given as regards spelling, particularly, initials.

GREENTON BAPTIST CHURCH

The church is all that remains of the buildings which marked the settlement of Greenton. When the railroad was laid to the south, most of the business men moved to what now is the city of Odessa. Land was originally entered by Joseph H. GREEN in 1837 and donated by his son, J. Luther GREEN. Earliest tombstone found: Harriet V., inf. dau. M.M. & M. J. ROBINSON, who died in 1849.

ST. LUKE'S UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST CEMETERY

For many years the service in this church was given in German. A sign on the church: Evangelische St. Lucas Kirche established 1897. This church is located in the town of Wellington. Many mind-boggling German script tombstones, dating from 1884.

GREENTON CEMETERY HISTORY

Located Southeast part Clay T. 49 N.-R.28W., Section 14. The Greenton Baptist Church is the only building remaining of an early community. Most of the Business operators moved to the present site of Odessa on advent of the railroad to the south of Greenton. Cemetery land was donated by J. Luther Green whose father, Joseph H. Green entered the land in 1837. The church is still active and recently purchased adjoining land to enlarge the cemetery.

LEXINGTON CATHOLIC CEMETERY

The following names have been excerpted from the first cemetery book, a record of some of the burials taking place from Immaculate Conception Parish, Lexington, Missouri. In a few cases, they are already listed under the cemetery census but not enough detail was given to be absolutely sure they are the same persons. These records are not too consistent so, for the sake of space, the names will be followed by a numeral to indicate the following: 1. No burial information given; 2. Buried Catholic cemetery, no location given; 3. Buried Catholic Cemetery, Lexington; 4. Buried Old Catholic cemetery; 5. Buried Calvary cemetery. I was unable to learn the location of the Calvary cemetery. At one time there was a Catholic cemetery near the (now) junction of Hiways 13 & 24. It is thought these graves were later removed to the present site of the Lexington Catholic cemetery. It is most likely all these people were buried in the same cemetery.

LEXINGTON CATHOLIC CEMETERY lies in the town of Lexington. The parish is known as Immaculate Conception but this name was not given to the cemetery. This graveyard served all of Lafayette county's Catholic citizens. Earliest marker found was: Francis O'DONNELL d. 1 Sept. 1855.

Material for this book was gathered with the devoted assistance of Fancy Brandy and Fancy Schnapps, miniature Dachshunds who travel the Tombstone Territory. Occasional muscle power provided by Barney J. BRUNETTI and David M. BRAYLEY.
