 this is a nice tall stone and has this verse Asleep in Jesus blessed sleep
 From whence none ever wake to weep
 I have fought a good fight
 I have finished my course I have kept the faith, Hensforth there is laid up for me a Crown of righteousness which the Lord the righteous Judge shall give me at that day.
 under Sarah's dates there is this verse Weep not that her toils are over weep not that her race is run God grant that we may rest as calmly when our work like hers is done Heaven retaineth now our treasure Earth the lonely casket keeps and the sun beams love to linger where our sainted mother sleeps.

CRIDER-MATLOCK CEMETERY

Located south of the Pea Ridge Free Will Baptist Church in the woods, just off V highway, in Gasconade Twp in Wright county Mo., read by Gloria Bogart Carter 1974.

There are fifteen graves marked in this cemetery, only two have information on them the rest are just marked by field stones. There may have been other graves, as it was very grown up with brush and trees. I cleaned it off in 1974, and Lewis Carter took the brush hog over there and made a path up to the cemetery.

CRIDER Nancy J. died June 11, 1873
 CRIDER Marhta J. was born January the 24, 1848 died September the 23, 1871

one of the unmarked graves is that of a small daughter of

In St. John chapter 5 verses 24 and 25:

Verily, Verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and they that hear shall live.
